FINDING THE WAY HOME

My Response to Living My Life for Jesus

I, _____, a repentant sinner, decide today, _____, to surrender the ownership of my life to the good Father. I renew the vows of my baptism to renounce Satan and to follow Jesus Christ more deliberately than I ever have before. Jesus, I give you my heart that you may forever set it on fire for love of you and for others. Keep my heart pure with your perfect love so that I may entrust myself totally to You. Jesus, please use me that I might bring "one more" to You.
